No bid shall be rejected at technical proposal / bid opening, except for late bids, which shall be returned unopened to the bidder. However, at the opening of Financial Proposals (the date, time and venue would be announced later on), the bid prices, discounts (if any), and the presence or absence of requisite Bid Security and such other details as the Procuring Agency, at its discretion, may consider appropriate, shall be announced.
20. Clarification of Bids:
During evaluation of the bids, the Procuring Agency may, at its discretion, ask the bidder for a clarification of its bid. The request for clarification and the response shall be in writing, and no change in the prices or substance of the bid shall be sought, offered, or permitted.
21. Preliminary Examination
The Procuring Agency shall examine the bids to determine whether they are complete, whether any computational errors have been made, whether required sureties have been furnished, whether the documents have been properly signed, and whether the bids are generally in order.
22. In the financial bids the arithmetical errors shall be rectified on the following basis. If there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail, and the total price shall be corrected. If the bidder does not accept the correction of the errors, its bid shall be rejected, and its bid Security may be forfeited. If there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words shall prevail.
The financial bids of technically accepted bidders will be opened publically at a time to be announced by the Procuring Agency and the financial bids found technically non-responsive shall be returned unopened to the respective Bidders.
23. Qualification & disqualification of bidders: The Procuring Agency shall disqualify a bidder if it finds, at any time, that the information submitted by firm was false and materially inaccurate or incomplete.
24. Rejection of Bids: The Procuring Agency may reject any or all bids at any time prior to the acceptance of a bid. The Procuring Agency shall upon request communicate to any bidder who submitted a bid, the grounds for its rejection of any or all bids, but is not required to justify those grounds. The Procuring Agency incurs no liability, solely towards bidders who have submitted bids. Notice of the rejection of any or all bids shall be given promptly to the concerned bidders that submitted bids.
25. Re-Bidding: If the Procuring Agency rejected all bids, it may call for a re-bidding or if deems necessary and appropriate the Procuring Agency may seek any alternative methods of procurement under the Punjab Procurement Rules-2014. The Procuring Agency before invitation for re-bidding shall assess the reasons for rejection and may revise specifications, evaluation criteria or any other condition for bidders, as it may deem necessary.
26. Announcement of Evaluation Report: The Procuring Agency shall declare the results of bid evaluation prior to the award of Supply orders.
27. Acceptance of Bid and Award Criteria: The bidder with the lowest evaluated bid, if not in conflict with any other law, rules, regulations or policy of the Provincial Government, shall be awarded the Supply Orders, within the original or extended period of bid validity.
28. Procuring Agency's Right to Vary Quantities at Time of Supply Orders.
The Procuring Agency reserves the right to decrease / increase the quantity of goods originally specified in the Price schedule and Schedule of Requirements without any change in unit price or other terms and conditions.
